

GLOBAL LEADERSHIP LAB

Innovative Solutions for Leading People

with David Livermore

OVERVIEW

We're in an age of massive global disruption. Digital transformation, remote working, adjusting to a global pandemic, and a diversifying workforce require global leaders who can lead with adaptive and inclusive efficiency.

The Global Leadership Lab is a two-day global leadership experience designed and led by David Livermore that will improve your effectiveness for leading in today's digital, diverse world. This is an in-person experience designed for leaders looking for real-life solutions for leading transformation in today's organization.

BENEFITS

You'll complete this experience with:

- An enhanced understanding of how to leverage your strengths and leadership style for leading in a global environment
- A strategic foundation for how to create an inclusive, innovative culture
- A research-based model for designing inclusive, innovative solutions to complex problems
- Out-of-the box thinking that allows you to adapt to the unpredictable terrain of leading in a digital, diverse environment
- A personal development plan for improving your global leadership effectiveness
- Learn how to inspire those you lead with vision and purpose
- Be mentored and led by David Livermore, a leading advisor with global executives

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Organizational leaders who are responsible for managing projects and/or people
- Entrepreneurs who are building their teams and scaling their business
- HR leaders managing change management and DEI initiatives
- High potential individuals who are seeking opportunities to assume a leadership position

PROGRAM DETAILS

Dates: April 26-27, 2022

Location: Liberty Station, San Diego

Length: 2 days (9 am Tues-5 pm Wed)

Fee: ~~$3,250~~ $2,500 for pilot program

PROGRAM EXPERIENCE

This is not a death-by-PowerPoint leadership seminar. It's a highly interactive two-day experience designed with developmental strategies that are proven to have lasting impact for you and your organization.

In order to ensure a high level of interaction, the number of participants will be capped at 30.

The program will bring you on a journey that includes leading your own well-being, improving the way you lead others, and enhancing your skills to solve complex leadership issues with inclusive, innovative solutions.

You'll develop a solution to a core leadership challenge and work with a cohort of peers to practice leading through real-life scenarios.

Learning Outcomes

- Adapt your leadership style for diverse individuals and situations
- Know how to create an inclusive, innovative culture for remote and in-person teams
- Demonstrate how to design an inclusive, innovative solution to a complex problem
- Develop a personal leadership plan

We'll share meals, tell stories, and develop friendships that will go well beyond our two day event.

The Global Leadership Lab will cover the following topics:

1. Leading Yourself: Adapting your leadership style without losing yourself
2. Leading Culture: Creating an inclusive, innovative culture for remote and in-person teams
3. Leading Innovation: Designing inclusive, innovative solutions to complex problems
4. Leading with Purpose: Inspiring with a compelling mission and cause
